Location: Wendy lives in a lovely four-bedroomed detached house in the quiet residential area of Goosewell, which has regular transport links to Plymouth city centre. There is also a water-sports centre and golf course in the vicinity. Plymouth itself is steeped in history with its famous Hoe (where Sir Francis Drake was playing bowls when the Spanish Armada arrived) and the vibrant historic Barbican with lots of cafes and handicraft shops. There is also a huge modern shopping mall in the city centre. Plymouth also has theatres, restaurants and sports centres as well as a dry ski slope. Not far away are the towns of Exeter and Torbay as well as Looe and Polperro across the 'border' in Cornwall.

Airports: Bristol (Zone 6), London Heathrow (Zone 7).

Student Accommodation: A nicely furnished comfortable double room with access to Wifi internet.

Family: Wendy lives with her husband Rod who is a retired EFL and French teacher. They have two small friendly dogs and one friendly cat.

Interests: Wendy and Rod's interests include dog training, photography, reading (Wendy), golf, football and bird-watching (Rod).
